TOUR ITINERARY

(B = Breakfast, L = Lunch, D = Dinner)

Day 1. Monday, September 20. Arrive Toulouse, France; to Rennes-le-Chateau area

Please book your international airfare to arrive in Toulouse by 11:00AM in order to meet the group for the transfer at noon.

Meet your Tour Host and Speaker Mark Pinkham and our group at the airport in Toulouse (details about where to meet will be provided in your final itinerary.) We depart the airport, stopping enroute for lunch on your own with the group, followed by a bit of shopping for personal food items for your dinner on your own this evening.

We arrive at our B and B, located across from the hilltop mystic village of Rennes-le-Château, situated in Cathar Country at the foot of the Pyrenees, in the Aude department within the Languedoc region of southern France. Check in and take a bit of time to relax. This is the area we'll explore during the next few days - the exquisite land here, set in the Valley of Colors, next to the River of Colors. There are many mysteries associated with this special location. Some believe that an ancient Mystery School was constructed on an old foundation of the current building. Also, legend says that the Holy Family once lived nearby on the high banks overlooking the meandering river. The Magdalene energy is very present here, especially in her nearby Cave. This area is in a five-pointed natural landscape temple that has been identified as a Venus Temple.

We gather in the later afternoon for a brief Introductory Meeting. Afterwards, enjoy your snacks and retire early.

Overnight Rennes-le-Château area.

Day 2. Tuesday, September 21. Rennes Le Chateau; Welcome Dinner (B/D)

After breakfast, we meet for a group sharing, meditation, and setting of personal intentions. Our overall intention for the group on this journey is to embrace the Gnostic Path of knowing one's Self fully, an experience that will be unique for each participant. We will experience the Goddess traditions as we journey into the sacred places of the Priestess and Black Madonna, as well as explore many places of the Holy Grail legends, to help you understand and assimilate the traditions of the East and West here.

We will also note the powerful astrological alignments happening during our ten-day journey that will enhance these experiences. Mars and Venus will both be in Scorpio the entire time, giving us an opportunity for deep transformation; it will open up the male and female relationship - both within and without. Then we will have a "harvest" full moon in Aries on the powerful autumn equinox to honor all that has been abundant in our lives in the balance of light and dark. With both Pluto and Saturn passing in Capricorn, we are being shown - at this time - that the old structures we have been living within, are falling away; they are showing us that it is time to create new ones that express our true feelings, that have perhaps been hidden within us. Venus passing in Taurus and Libra, reminds us of the Goddess and the Earth, and we complete our journey honoring and surrendering to Love.

Then we will have a presentation about the Mystery Traditions of the Languedoc and discuss why it is known to be the homeland of Alchemy. Afterwards we're off to the famous hilltop village of Rennes Le Chateau, situated in a strategic location once inhabited by the Romans, Visigoths and Merovingians, where we will visit the famous Tour Magdala and Church, both dedicated to Mary Magdalene.

It is this church that Abbe Sauniere was renovating when he mysteriously discovered coded documents, went to Paris with them and returned with a great amount of money, (still legend today), with which he built the Tour Magdala and renovated the church. There has always been a quest for treasure coins, elusive monies, as well as for the spiritual treasure of the Holy Grail. Legend says that there is an ancient Temple of Isis hidden deep in the earth beneath the tiny hilltop village of Rennes Le Chateau, which has also been identified as one of the points of the natural landscape Temple pentagram. The other points are visible from here, each one marked with a sacred mountain, including the famous Templar Castle/Fortress, Bezu, which is one of them.

We take time for lunch on your own with the group at one of the small cafes in Rennes-le-Chateau. Afterwards, we will be honored to meet with Toby Dobler, who lives in Rennes Le Chateau, is a Knights Templar in the French Templar Order (OSMTH) and "commander" of the Languedoc Commanderie of Mary Magdalene. How significant to have two Commanders from two Orders of Knights Templar coming together here!

We will then return to our B&B for our special Welcome Dinner. Overnight Rennes-le-Château area.

Day 3. Wednesday, September 22. Magdalene Cave (B/D)

After breakfast we each take time to walk and integrate our experiences so far on these beautiful grounds; then we will gather to center. Since most of our journey in the Rennes Le Chateau area, takes place within the landscape temple of the five pointed star, we will talk about the Pentagram, the Rose and how it relates to the Magdalene, the Templars, Venus and the Goddess, the sources for many of these mysteries.

Lunch will be on your own; we can create a picnic to enjoy on the lovely grounds of our B and B.

Then we walk to a small natural cave, known locally as the Magdalene Cave, where we'll create a ceremony using the sacred "bowl", in celebration of the Fall Equinox tomorrow.

We return walking to our B and B and enjoy sharing our experiences during our group dinner.
Overnight Rennes-le-Château area.

Day 4. Thursday, September 23. Fall Equinox! Rennes Les Bains (B/D)

Today is a full day in Rennes Les Bains, where we'll experience the sacred healing thermal waters. Our journey begins in a special place of the Priestess, who is guardian and initiator through the doorway of this sacred Temple, in this place of surrender. With the full moon in Aries, it may be time to identify and feel your truth, to identify your dream to live - with courage.

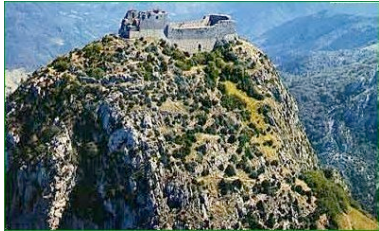

We enjoy a simple lunch on your own at a café in the town. Then we continue on our path to experience the 5000 year old stone Seat of Isis next to Her holy spring. Each person will have time for quiet reflection here, with a personal attunement, as the powerful ley line alignments pass through the seat.

Finally, we visit an ancient alchemical place where the fresh and salt waters come together, La Blanque (the white waters) and La Salz (the salt waters), symbolizing the merging of the primordial waters of creation: a place of union. We complete our day here with a final ceremony for the Fall Equinox, honoring ourselves, our places of origin and the path we have chosen.

We enjoy a celebratory dinner to honor our day by the sacred waters of the Goddess. Then we return to our B and B.
Overnight Rennes-le-Château area.

Day 5. Friday, September 24. Montsegur (B)

After breakfast, spend quiet time on the grounds. Then we gather to catch up, center and discuss the Cathar beliefs and practices before we depart for their famous Castle, Montsegur, sometime referred to as the Grail Castle. This stronghold is where 200 Cathars made their "last stand" and were burned rather than renounce their beliefs in exchange for those of the Catholic church. The night before, however, legend says that four Cathars escaped down the most dangerous ledge of the Castle with ropes, to safety, with their sacred treasure. It has never been revealed, even today. People surmise that it was the Grail Cup, while others feel it was a woman whose womb carried the bloodline of the Holy Grail.

In the tiny Montsegur church, an ancient Black Madonna sits, hidden from most people's sight. It was brought here by the monks of Montserrat 300 years previous to acknowledge and symbolize the connection between the two places - the initiatory aspects of the "Mother Mountains". Some of the rites and initiations of the Cathars, carried them deep into these grottos/caves, high up in the mountains, to live for months, days or years.

Time for lunch on your own at the little on-site restaurant. Then we hike up to the Montsegur Castle, where we notice the unusual shape of the mountain upon which it was built. What does it mean? What was the legacy of the Cathars that is still pertinent in our lives today? Take some time to meditate on this and more as you spend time on this ancient hallowed ground.

We return to our B and B in the later afternoon. After dinner on your own at the B and B, take time to pack for our early departure tomorrow.

Overnight Rennes-le-Château area.

Day 6. Saturday, September 25. Aigues-Mortes; To Les Saintes Maries de La Mer (B)

After breakfast we depart for Les Saintes Maries de La Mer. Our first stop is at the Medieval walled town of Aigues-Mortes (dead water), once located closer to the Mediterranean before it dried up and became a marsh. It is an impressive fortification with an atmosphere of the Middle Ages, with 20 towers and seven gateways or entrances. This area was once part of land owned by the Counts of Toulouse, before it was annexed by France to become the departure point of the 7th and 8th Crusade to the Holy Land, led by King Louis IX. He built the town on an earlier Roman foundations dating to 102 BCE, because he wanted a Mediterranean port of his own. The Knights Templar are associated, historically, with this town as well. There is an impressive statue of King Clovis in the medieval town square.

Enjoy lunch on your own with the group at one of the local little cafes. Then we continue to Les Saintes Maries de la Mer, arriving mid-afternoon.

Les Saintes Maries de la Mer is a small fishing village located on the Mediterranean coast, near Marseilles, where Mary

Magdalene is said to have arrived by boat from the Holy Land. She was with a small party of people and was greeted by the Gypsies. The group included two other Marys, Joseph of Arimathea, perhaps Lazarus and Sara, the patron Saint of the Gypsies, also thought to be the daughter of Magdalene and Jesus.

Les Sainte Maries de la Mer was once an ancient pilgrimage site for the Celts who came to receive healing from the Goddess who they felt was present in the warm spring located here, and for the Greeks who once had a Temple dedicated to Aphrodite. This region, the Camargue, is known as the cowboy country of France, where hundreds of white horses once ran wild, until the Gypsies settled here and tamed them.

After checking in at our hotel, we walk to the local 6th century church for our first visit with Saint Sara, the Black Madonna. After several thousand years of prayers and healings done in this place, especially during the Gypsy Festival each year to honor the arrival of Magdalene and Sarah, it is easy to lovingly accept a way of living and being from our hearts. Individual communication requested from the black Saint Sarah in the crypt can give endless insight, compassion and wisdom.

Afterwards you have free time to explore the little village. Dinner is on your own tonight, but why not get together with your fellow pilgrims and share your experiences and some lively conversation!

Day 7. Sunday, September 26. Les Saintes Maries de La Mer (B)

This morning we will discuss the history and meaning of the Black Madonna, who in all Mystery School traditions was known to have “supernatural” powers. Then we go to the water to ceremonially purify ourselves in the soothing healing waters of the Mediterranean. This is a wonderful opportunity to release any limitation and blocks to living from the heart.

Afterwards you have some free time for retail therapy, which includes aromatic products from Provence for gifts and personal enjoyment. Dinner tonight is on your own again.

Overnight Les Saintes Maries de la Mer.

Day 8. Monday, September 27. To Collioure (B)

After breakfast we depart on our way to Spain, staying one night enroute to Barcelona or Montserrat in the beautiful, historic town of Collioure, located on the coast of the Mediterranean, just north of the Spanish border. It was first settled by the Celtic tribes, then later used as a port by the Phoenicians, Greeks, and Romans for trading, until the Visigoths took it over in the 7th century. The town hosts a Royal Palace or Castle, and a large fortress. Collioure was made famous by and closely associated with the Knights Templar who passed through on their crusade routes to the Holy Land. They used the ancient fortress here during the 12th century and there is still, even today, much mystery about their illusive treasures. Collioure later became the home of the Fauvist Painter Movement who were intrigued by the rare quality of the light. Among them were Derain, Braque, Matisse, Picasso.

Our stop here in this peaceful, beautiful town offers us an opportunity to relax and integrate our powerful journey so far. We explore at leisure, the Royal Palace, church, cafes and beaches. Lunch and dinner on your own. Overnight Collioure.

Day 9. Tuesday, September 28. To Montserrat (B)

After breakfast, we depart for Montserrat, the capital of Catalonia, located just north of Barcelona, Spain, located high up in the Pyrenees, where we will spend our last two nights. Montserrat means the place of the “jagged rocks”, and has always been identified as a Sleeping Dragon. These famous rocks, amongst which the Basilica, the Benedictine monastery (founded in the 11th century) and the Holy Grotto are located, are said to be the most unusual in the entire Catalan region. It was here in 880 CE where a group of shepherd children first saw a bright light coming from a cave high above them. They also reported hearing angels voices singing. So, when their parents sought to discover the source, they too experienced the same light and angelic voices. A Black Madonna was discovered inside the Grotto, but was so heavy, She was left in place. Another was carved, exactly like Her and placed in the Basilica. Today pilgrims come from all over the world to worship and honor Her. Many visions and miracles have been reported, during or just after people’s visit here (similar to those of Saint Sarah in Saintes Marie de la Mer).

Every day a choir of young boys sings in the church with voices that sound like those of angels. Legend says that Mary Magdalene did much teaching here with her daughter Sarah-Tamar, and that the Knights Templar came here, carrying with them one of their treasures, possibly the Holy Grail Cup or Arc of the Covenant. It is possible that Magdalene was teaching from The Book of Love, known to be the true teachings of Jesus, which was possibly the true treasure of the Cathars, their Holy Grail. Much of Magdalene’s teaching was done in caves and in very remote areas, where she was able to be away from the public eye. It is also possible that the Cathars knew of these teaching and were living them. They would integrate the knowledge, in the caves, to then live their Gnosis.

We arrive in Montserrat and check into our accommodations. Dinner on your own. Overnight Montserrat.

Day 10. Wednesday, September 29. Montserrat; Farewell Dinner (B/D)

Today we visit both Black Madonnas, the one in the Basilica, as we make our visit inside, as well as the one high up in the grotto (a tram takes us there). There are special places where there are little rock chapels with exquisite views of the mountains that we can visit as we complete our sacred journey together. We will spend our last two days integrating and assimilating our experiences.

Our Closing Ceremony will be in a special location up in the rocks, surrounded by the ancient rock people, to honor each other, the Holy Grail Mysteries (and how a deeper understanding of them will influence our lives), the Earth, the Goddess and the Great Black Madonna. You have an invitation to consciously step out of one reality to embrace and proclaim a new one. What is your new dream? It will be witnessed not only by your fellow pilgrims, but by the ancient rock people who are the guardians and wisdom keepers of truth. What you proclaim will remain here with them, the way others have done before us, as they are the record keepers and will always remember.

We return to our hotel for our celebratory Farewell Dinner. Overnight Montserrat.

Day 11. Thursday, September 30. Depart Barcelona (B)

After an early breakfast, we check out of the hotel, and depart for the airport in Barcelona. Please book your international return flight to depart after 11:00AM.
